

2022 Was A Year With Frog and Toad

We did three performances of the adapted version of this Broadway Show, a story of two friends, Frog and Toad, and how they navigate their friendship. The final performance was in November, City Church in Madison. Over 200 friends and family members came. It was followed by a big party celebrating our actors.

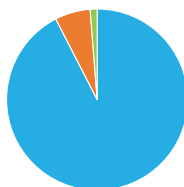

Thank you again for a wonderful job to Sarah Karlan, our director, the Arts and Communication Pastor at City Church in Madison and Theatre Director for ALCS. We also thank our great team of helpers, facilitators, teachers, and set builders. We are so proud of our artists who rose to the challenge of learning lines, songs, and choreography. A big "Shout Out" to Alex H. Max, Julie, Sara, Alex S. Erin, Eva, Lauren, Alex R. Molly, Adam and Gracie!

Visual Arts is a Fun Time for Friendship and Creativity!

Leslie Iwai led us through a number of fun projects like making yarn baskets, folding paper flowers and wrapping colorful sticks. Our times together is full of laughter, art-making and learning.
